

When did free-thinking become something to be mocked?

By Simon – 14th January 2013

People today have been conditioned to only accept information they have been told is true. Anyone who thinks outside the box is labelled a conspiracy theorist or a crazy person.

When you look at how the media portray people with a different view and look closely at the wording you will clearly see the programming in action.

CNN recently ( Jan 2013 ) caught wind of a professor who was questioning how the media handled the Sandy Hook tragedy. Look at how it was worded before they actually start talking about his claims...

“We begin with a story that is hard to believe. You will want to sit down for this one”, “there are always conspiracy theorists lurking online who come up with horrifically outrageous claims. Normally we would not dignify these claims with air-time. These claims are obviously sickening to many...”. “It turns out one of the people peddling these conspiracy theories...”.

If you watch the media carefully youll notice this pattern of portrayal, i. e. loathing, seedy, basement dwelling crazy people is repeated anytime a different theory is mentioned. They build up a huge amount of loathing and disbelief so the viewer is already in the mindset it is unpatriotic, disturbing or disgusting... even when the evidence ( or lack of it ) is indisputable. The media has never and will never take a neutral stance when anyone goes against the version they tell. This is exactly the same in science and religion. Why such demonisation for people who question? If what they say is not true just dazzle them with evidence contraindicating theirs. Why go all out portraying them as sick and evil just for having a different opinion?

Do you believe that everything youve ever been told about our history ( ancient and modern ) is 100% accurate and true? Do you believe there is NOTHING that has ever been kept back?

Would it surprise you that in our ancient history virtually every single religion and ancient text, going back some 60,000 years, all talk about the same type of thing? Would it surprise you that there are up to 200 records of the great flood? Would it surprise you that if you draw straight lines around earth from any of the major ancient monuments like the Great Pyramids it will also include many other ancient moments and places of importance? Would it surprise you that the Mayans, 6,000 years ago discovered planets like Pluto ( we didnt discover it until the 1930s)? Did you know the Mayans have accurately recorded every single cosmic event to within minutes. Did you know that we still use their work today for predicting events?

Did you know there are many ancient artifacts, hieroglyphs, tablets and cuneiforms that show things we have only recently discovered like sacred geometry, cymatics, biology, chemistry and more? Did you know the great pyramid was built using Pi and the golden ratio?

Why is our ancient history never taught in schools? Yes they go back some of the way but even with Egypt they only talk about the simplest of things. Why are the Sumerian and Mayan civilisations, which were in some ways more advanced than we are today, never spoken about?

What is this world all about?

What is the number one thing that drives humanity? FEAR!

Don't believe in God? you'll burn in hell for all eternity. In the media they constantly instill fear into your life. Have you ever been in a terrorist attack, mugged, raped, stabbed, murdered : )? Have you ever seen it with your own eyes? Yet we are to believe that there is a terrorist, mugger, rapist, murderer on almost every street corner. This whole World is built around FEAR to hide you from the truth.

I do not fear death and for the death of others I will be celebrating their life and not mourning their death because I know what we truly are. We have been taught death should be feared. This could not be ANY FURTHER from the truth! It is a fear-based system for a very good reason (Just like all the other fear instilled in our lives)! Seriously, ask yourself; "WHY are we constantly bombarded with fear in every single aspect of our lives?"

While you're doing that ask yourself another question: "Why do we label everyone and then separate society into different sections so we never unite?"

The answers to where we came from are recorded in countless ancient texts from all over the World and they all talk about almost identical things. It is once you let go of all you have learnt and just run with everything you will find the answers. Once on this path you will find that often the biggest answers will actually find you!

Free-Thinking is not stupid, it is not crazy, it is not anti-evidence. Free Thinking is something that everyone should be doing. The planet is full of drones who blindly accept everything they are told and question nothing. If it's on TV it must be true... right?

The banality of the human race has reached new lows. Never before have the answers been so freely available but never before has society had less interest in finding the answers to the biggest questions.

The origins of man and where we came from is out there. Not just in one piece of text from one place in the World but multiple accounts from every corner of the planet, spanning thousands of years. It is impossible to not draw realistic conclusions based on the overwhelming evidence left for us.

“The highest activity a human being can attain is learning for understanding, because to understand is to be free.”

—Baruch Spinoza

If you only read the books that everyone else is reading or watch the same shows that everyone else is watching, you can only THINK what everyone else is thinking.

WHY has humanity stopped thinking for itself and allowed others to tell them what they should believe. Why does no one draw up their own independent conclusions anymore?

Free-Thinking has been a crime many times in the past and it will be again. The answers need to stay hidden for society to remain where it is in this fear-driven, terror-driven, war-driven, money-driven, sheeple-driven system of slavery. We are in a prison but most cannot see.

A scene in the film The Matrix summed it up brilliantly...

Morpheus: “The Matrix is everywhere. It is all around us, even now, in this very room. You can see it when you look out your window, or when you turn on your television. You can feel it when you go to work, or when you go to church, or when you pay your taxes. It is the world that has been pulled over your eyes, to blind you from the truth.”

Neo: “What truth?”

*Morpheus: “That you are a slave, Neo. Like everyone else, you were born into bondage, born inside a prison that you cannot smell, taste, or touch. A prison for your mind.

Unfortunately, no one can be told what the Matrix is. You have to see it for yourself...”
